

The Voluntown Peace Trust

presents

Iraqi artist Amal Alwan Al-Maseer and peace activist Christopher Allen-Doucot for a presentation on the war in Iraq followed by a showing and sale of Amal's oil paintings.

Sunday, May 31

Presentation 4:00 followed by art show and sale.

Voluntown Peace Trust

539 Beach Pond Rd., Voluntown

Amal, which means "Hope" in Arabic, is a mother, artist and refugee. Amal was displaced by the bombing of Baghdad in 2004 and spent years seeking safety in Syria and Jordan before arriving in New Paltz, New York, earlier this year. Chris first met Amal in 1999 during one of his many trips to Iraq with the antiwar group Voices in the Wilderness. Chris has given presentations on the situation in Iraq at many universities, churches and at an international conference in Moscow.

original pieces and prints will be available starting at $50 for directions or details contact Chris at doucot@sbcglobal.net