

Songs of Freedom & Struggle, Bringing It All Back Home

Join us in Voluntown in February for a day-long event singing and celebrating
Songs of Freedom and Struggle!

YOU have a unique opportunity to participate in a day-long event at The Voluntown Peace Trust with SFS musicians and Charlie King on February 22, 2014.

... AND eat good food prepared by Joanne Sheehan and Rick Gaumer (Pacifeast Caterers).

SCHEDULE ~ SONGS OF FREEDOM AND STRUGGLE GATHERING

9:30 - 10am Registration, meeting folks, refreshments

10 - 10:45am Opening Music and Introductions

10:45 - 12:30pm Workshops for musicians, singers and songwriters

12:30 - 2pm Lunch by Pacifeast Caterers

2 - 3:30pm Remembering Pete : A Seeger Singalong

3:30pm Free time/ Open Space workshops

4:30pm "It isn't Nice: A History of Nonviolence in the U.S.", an historical performance piece with images, readings and songs by Charlie King and Marcia Taylor

6pm Dinner by Pacifeast Caterers

7:30pm Round Robin

Package A Saturday, February 22, Full Day - Starts at 9:30 AM

Package B Saturday, February 22, Half Day - Starts at 2:00 PM

We also have B&B packages for February 21/22 if you'd like to stay over a night or two.

Visit the Voluntown Peace Trust website event page (voluntownpeacetrust.org/sfs) for info and details about purchasing or reserving tickets.

The Voluntown Peace Trust, 539 Beach Pond Road, Voluntown, CT 06384
860 376 9970 info@voluntownpeacetrust.org